

SAVE THE DATE!

Human Milk in the NICU: Translating Evidence into Practice

Presented by:

Paula Meier, RN, DNSc, FAAN

Program Schedule

8:15 am	Registration, (continental breakfast provided)
9:00 am	Welcome & Evidence for the Use of Human Milk in the NICU
10:15 am	Protecting Maternal Milk Volume in the Breastpump Dependent Mothers with NICU Infants
11:00 am	Break
11:15 am	Best NICU Practices for Overcoming Barriers to the Use of Human Milk
12:30 pm	Lunch (provided)
1:15 pm	Storage, Handling and Feeding of Expressed Human Milk in the NICU
2:30 pm	Lactation Risks and Management Strategies for the Late Preterm Infant and Mother
3:30 pm	Break
3:45 pm	Using Lactation Science & Technology to Prevent, Diagnose, and Manage Human Milk Feeding Problems in NICU and Late Preterm Infants
5:00 pm	Summary, Questions, Conclusions (Program Concludes at 5:15 pm)

Date: Tuesday, November 29, 2011

To Register: Go to www.MedelaEducation.com

Registration Fee: Free for first 50 Forsyth Medical Center employees ($25 each additional employee) $75.00 per person for non-employees

Questions: Polly Sisk 336-718-3277 or pmsisk@novanthealth.org
Debbie Gardner 800-435-8316 ext 5577 or debbie.gardner@medela.com

Credits: 6.0 RN Contact Hours
0.6 A.C.N.M
6.0 Dietitian CPE Category II

Location: Forsyth Medical Center
Conference Center, First Floor
3333 Silas Creek Parkway
Winston-Salem, NC 27103
*Access from parking deck and from entrance F

Parking: Park in parking deck adjacent to Forsyth and Conference Center (1st floor of Women's Center). Parking passes will be provided.

Sponsor:

Remarkable People. Remarkable Medicine.